Laurelview is a place where your child will ...

- have a safe place to spend a week with God, peers, and qualified staff.
- be welcomed as family and respected for who they are.

Hear directly from our campers why Laurelview is so special ...

"Walking to the cross for evening prayer, riding the bus to go swimming at Trent, & the evening dances...Oh! And the fun rustic feel of the cabins."

- Wendy Fitzpatrick

"It's a beautiful tribute to all of our Christianity; the sacred ground we walk on, sleep on, pray on, and are blessed on. A place a lot of us have been saved."

- Becky Cochran Yowler

"It's a home I know I belong to."

- Alllura Carrigan

Camp Laurelview is the Answer

- Our directors have years of experience working with children and youth in their home churches.
- Staff are chosen and trained specifically for their week of camp and are legally certified and cleared to work with children.
- Our weeks are based on a God-focused curriculum, where we learn through play, song, nature, vespers, prayer, communion, and more.
- Every week is special for our campers while fostering a safe and warm environment.
